NEW BUSINESS

1. Elections of a chairperson: not able to as Eric had to cancel.
2. Purpose of Advisory (Scott and Paul)
3. Importance of Advisory to both business and students (Susan)
4. Explanation of CTE (Paul)
5. Endorsements of Programs: Business needs to be guests in classrooms.
6. Ideas/brainstorm a meaningful program of work:
 - Meet with business and schools
 - Come while teachers are teaching for eye-opening experiences.
 - Have business be guest speakers.
7. Each teacher presented her program and a summary of frameworks.

- a. CVHS and UHS:
 - i. Consumer and Family Resources (formerly FFF but finances being removed) (will be new)
 - ii. Single Survival
 - iii. Careers in Social Services (will be new)
 - iv. Fabric and Apparel (elements of design, preparation for retail, possible articulation with SFCC)
 - v. Interior Design (will be new, possible articulation with SFCC)
 - vi. Foods And Nutrition
 - vii. Advance Nutrition and Food Science
 - viii. Child Development (field sites and college credits available)
 - ix. Teaching Academy (field sites and college credits available)
 - b. EVSD
 - i. ASL 1 and 2 (vocabulary, audio interpretation, debates, and music interpretation)

 - ii. Foods 2
 - iii. Culinary Arts
 - iv. Food Science, Dietetics, and Nutrition
8. There was much discussion from business members on how they need employees with solid life skills and financial sense, despite these not being “career paths” because these are absolutely essential across all careers. Business advocates strongly for life skills.
- a. Business members are not concerned about “career paths;” to have quality employees, they really want to see these items taught (these are not taught on the job, and students need to have them to remain viable employees):
 - i. Financial education
 - ii. Mock interviews
 - iii. Cover letters
 - iv. Nutrition/food skills
 - v. Relationship skills
9. Consensus of approval from the business attendees on the programs and summary of frameworks.

PRESENTATIONS/OTHER

- 1. Corey discussed student registration and the upcoming Career Fair at CV.
- 2. Next meeting time: Monday, March 28 at East Valley High School 7:30-9:30. We will need to approve new courses at this meeting. Course frameworks need to be done by the end of March.
